2ND ANNUAL PICNIC AT THE HOME OF TRACY & IRENE BUGG IS A GREAT SUCCESS

TRACY COOKING UP THE GRUB!

WELL ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL PICNIC THIS YEAR! AND WE ENJOYED EVERY MINUTE OF IT!
EVEN THE COOKING AND CLEANING PART. WE HAD IT ALL CLEANED UP AND PUT AWAY BY ABOUT 9:00 I THINK! :)

IRENE

FOR THOSE OF YOU MEMBERS THAT DID NOT ATTEND THE PICNIC, YOU REALLY MISSED OUT ON GOOD FOOD. WE DIDN'T EVEN HAVE TO COOK. TRACY & IRENE DID ALL THE COOKING AND CLEAN-UP. OH, YES, SOME OF US HELPED HAUL THE FOODS FROM THE HOUSE TO THE SHOP AND FROM THE SHOP BACK TO THE HOUSE. ALL IN ALL, THIS WAS A VERY GOOD PICNIC. CONGRATULATIONS TRACY & IRENE ON A JOB WELL DONE!!!!

MEMBERS ENJOYING THE FOOD & FUN!!

SATURDAY EVENING FEAST

On behalf of all members who attended the August meeting, I'd like to offer a special thanks to Tracy and Irene Bugg for their hospitality. Not only was a meeting place provided, they also supplied all the food and drinks. Fifteen classics and two civilian cars filled with hungry people made the trip and enjoyed chicken, brisket, hot links, beans, salad, vegetables, apple pie, pecan pie and homemade ice cream! Quite a Saturday evening feast. Again, thanks Tracy and Irene and we'll all come back any time you want to invite us out!!

LAME DUCK

The much anticipated election of new officers for our club is over and everyone who ran was unanimously returned to office. I appreciate those who served this past year and look forward to working with all of them again during the next 12 months. As President of the COCCC, I'm now considered a lame duck. (No Tom, that's not an injured waterfowl). It simply means because of term limits, I can't be elected again next year and my power is quite diminished. Things such as assessing fines for different infractions may not happen. However, writing about people being late or having a rat in their car will surely continue. I've tried my best to keep the meetings short, entertaining and hopefully this will continue as we head into 2009.

A BUSY SEPTEMBER

We may have a conflict trying to schedule the next Dinner Cruise. Donna McIninch was the lucky person chosen to plan one for September. (We voted not to have a cruise in August). However, the month is filled with car shows that might interfere with organizing anything. Now we could postpone the anxiety for Donna and let her suffer until January. That's because we have our Fall Foliage trip at the end of October and normally we don't do one in November or December because of the holidays. As a club we voted to attend the Lions Club show in Duffner Park on the 13th of September. So the question becomes, do we just want to count that as our Dinner Cruise for the month? Or, on the 20th two shows are on the radar screen. One at the Riverwind Casino in Norman, the other at Hafer Park in Edmond. Finally on the 27th the show in Perkins is another option. I guess this will be a topic for discussion at our next meeting.

FUTURE MEETING DATES

Sep 14th - 3 pm - Coits on I-44 and N. Penn.

Oct 12th - 3 pm - Coits on I-44 and N. Penn.

Nov 16th - 3 pm - Coits on I-44 and N. Penn.

Dec 13th - 1 pm - Hometown Buffet on NW 63rd and NW Highway

Hope to see you at Duffner Park for the Lions Club Show on September 13th and then Coits on the 14th for the club meeting.

Our Trip to the Chevrolet Nomad Convention
Charleston, WV July 15—29, 2008

On the morning of July 15, 2008 True & Sherry Osborn met up with us (Larry & Annette Myers) and headed out for the eastern regions of the U.S. True and Sherry hadn't been in that area of the country and so this was a real experience for them. Our first overnight stop was in Springfield, MO and while there, we took in the "Fantastic Caverns" and "Lambert's" the home of the throwed roll. Sherry and True were truly surprised when they held their hand up and a hot roll landed in their hand. The food was wonderful at "Lambert's" and I suggest that if you ever get in their area, that you stop in for a meal.

Our next day had us stopping outside of St. Louis, MO at a "Jesse James Wax Museum". Little did we know that there was a toy museum next door. Good-by True!! He disappeared from view real quick. We spent probably 2 hours in the museum then we went over to see the Jesse James Wax museum. After leaving there, we went into St. Louis and visited the Union Station and saw the hotel that is in the station. The work that went into building the hotel was just beautiful. I suggest that if you are ever in St. Louis, stop in. It is well worth the time. We had talked to Sherry about going up in the "Gateway Arch", but she didn't want to go up. She asked all sorts of questions about how we got up to the top and still didn't feel thrilled that we were going to go up in the arch. She enjoyed the view, but was still regretting that we had convinced her to go. We traveled on to our next stop for the night. By that time, we had been in OK, MO & IL, that's 3 states.

Our next day we went to Bowling Green, KY and the National Corvette Museum. We spent some time in the museum and headed on down the road to Elizabethtown, KY where we spent the night. Now we have been in OK, MO, IL, IN & KY, that's 5 states. While in Elizabethtown, we saw signs for a Coca Cola Museum and old car museum. How could we not stop and look? We took in a antique mall, the old car museum and finally found the Coca Cola Museum across the street from where we spent the night. All this time, we were waiting on our friends, Ed & Mary Robertson, from MS to meet up with us. We enjoyed the Coca Cola Museum the most. You can ask True and Sherry how many things that they had that was in that museum. It is amazing what collectors save.

After meeting up with the Robertson's, we headed on into WV and Mary & Sherry spotted a casino. We found a room and then found out how to get back to that casino. First non-smoking casino I had ever been in. Now we were just about 5 miles from the convention site and we had been in OK, MO, IL, IN, KY & WV, that's 6 states. While at the convention, we took the Wednesday tour and got to see some of the beautiful state of West Virginia and learn some of it's history. We saw the New River bridge and took a tour of a coal mine. One of our members, Ruby Watt, had driven her '56 Nomad by herself, to the convention. She was having some car trouble and Larry & True worked on it for her. The weather was beautiful while we were in WV.

On Friday, after getting Ruby ready to roll, we headed south out of Charleston. We stopped that evening at Sevierville, TN, thinking we would go to Dollywood. Not going to happen. We took in a muscle car museum while there. Now we have been in OK, MO, IL, IN, KY, WV, VA & TN. That's 8 states so far.

The next day we left Sevierville, TN and drove the back roads to Mt. Juliet, TN (where Ruby lives and didn't know we were real close to her home) to spend the night. We took in a car show in some small town on the way and when we went looking for somewhere to eat dinner, there was a car show going on at a Chick-Fil-A. So we did what every red blooded classic car driver would do, we cruised thru their show and let them look at our cars. We went to the nearby ice cream shop and had some of their expensive ice cream. Yum Yum!!

Leaving the next morning (Sunday) I asked Sherry & True if they wanted to see the Hermitage, home of President Andrew Jackson. That was a no brainer. Yes Yes & Yes! We spent about 4 hours there and enjoyed seeing history. We drove on to Tunica, MS to spend the night at the Gold Strike Casino. Low and behold, Sherry & Larry had enough points on their player's cards that we were able to spend the night free and have our meals free also. What a great time we had!!

I forgot to mention that all this trip, True & Sherry's car's air conditioner wasn't turned on because the car would die if they ran the a/c. As we left Nashville and the Hermitage, Larry turned on our a/c and it quit! Oh No!! I don't like being too hot!! Well, it couldn't be fixed while on the road, needed to order a part. So, all the way home, we did without the a/c and we were coming into the 100 degree + weather. Oh, yes. Now we have been in OK, MO, IL, IN, KY, WV, VA, TN & MS that's 9 states and we aren't even home yet.

Leaving Tunica, MS, we drove into AR and then back into OK. At one stop in AR, True said that I looked overheated. I looked at myself in the mirror and thought that I didn't look good, so I opened the ice chest and dunked a rag into it and put it around my neck. I cooled down real soon and felt a lot better.

Now as you can guess, we have been in 10 states while on this trip: OK, MO, IL, IN, KY, WV, VA, TN, MS, AR and back to OK.

The Osborn's and ourselves travel well together. We always enjoy our time spent with our friends and their car. We enjoy introducing them to areas that we have seen at one time or another and hope that they enjoy them too. True and Sherry are the ultimate companions to travel with. They just follow "old Blue" anywhere and we all love "Seeing the USA in our Chevrolet Nomads". Thanks, True & Sherry for putting up with us and for going with us.

Your Friends, Annette & Larry
